Fun game; dead community; inactive developers.

1:2. Honestly, this is one of the few games that I come back and play on a regular basis. It took a bit of learning curve to get into it, but after practicing for a bit, I just absolutely LOVE it! The level of detail, strategy, and all around fun is amazing.. This game is wicked! when you drift backwards around a wall and line up an enemy tank with you're ion cannon! Bam! Good times:) I've been playing it for years and keep coming back. If your a graphic's snob (like my lame friends) then u prolly wont touch it. But if you play games for fun! Metal Drift promises unique, hard hitting, high speed, drift tank action!. This game is an incredible cockpit driven vehicular combat sports hybrid. Floating tanks, fast action, arena matching, all done from in the vehicle's cockpit in full detail with a fully working dashboard for the hud. One of my favorite games however it suffers from only having a small community. Easily a worth while game.. ITS A REALLY FUTURISTIC KIND OF SOCCER whoops sry for caps ahhemmm anyways there are 6 weapons in the game my favorite weapon is the shock cannon its a really hard beam to get but its worth it so il; give it a 5/5 its a awesome game to add to your collection

Contrary to what was mentioned in another review and despite the lack of info on the store page, this game has no offline mode. It is an online-only DRM game. There is bot and LAN support, but you must still create an account with Black Jacket (email required) and log into their servers in order to play. If your internet connection is down, or if Black Jacket's servers are down, the game will not run at all. Further, Black Jacket has no publicly-viewable privacy policy that I could find, so be mindful of what they do with your personal data.

It's good that there is at least bot support, because you will have a very difficult time finding anyone online to play with outside of special events. Unfortunately, the bot AI is very simplistic and rarely uses any sort of team tactics like passing and coordination, so you won't get much enjoyment at all if you're planning on playing solo.

The core gameplay is fun - basically soccer with tanks. If you do have a group of friends to play with, you may get some enjoyment out of it, but I wouldn't recommend the game to anyone else.. This is an excellent game... by far the most rewarding in my collection. The controls are quite difficult to master, but I wouldn't have them any other way. I would definitely recommend this to anyone who enjoys an adrenalin rush, is capable of working as a team, and enjoys FPS games.

Some others have complained of the levelling system; I think it's actually beneficial. Ensuring that noobs have to use easy-to-use weapons (e.g. being able to spray) and helpful abilities (like heal) means they're less likely to drag down their teams as they learn. It also gives a sense of satisfaction and purpose to the game.. Hey everyone. I bought this game quite some time ago now and enjoyed playing it over LAN at home with friends and against bots. I'd like to tell you what changes were made in the last update to this game, but I can't because the devs decided we now have to create an online account with password in order to play at all. It would've been nice to give people the option to continue playing over LAN without forcing players online with strangers. I enjoy playing multiplayer online sometimes, but there are plenty of times that I just don't want to. I enjoyed things the way they were.

If you know nothing about the game, it's basically like the old Car Wars arena play from Steve Jackson Games, but these vehicles hover. I enjoyed the game a lot for what it's worth, but if you want to play you need to get used to the idea that an online account is required. I can't review any of the changes since the last major update that added the account requirement with no option to bypass. As it is, if you like cars and weapons in an arena, this is okay... but wait for it to go on sale.

I do recommend the game overall with the notable provisions stated above. My kids didn't really like playing it very much. They'd rather play a lot of other games instead of this. I have deleted the game from my system, but if my kids ever change their minds about playing... maybe I'll make an account for it. Maybe. Sometimes I just want to play over LAN with people I know, but the devs excluded that option. Too bad.. I kinda wish there were more games like this.. This is a multiplayer-only title that nobody plays, and the only single-player mode is the tutorial. Don't buy.. Do not buy this game. It may look fun but the multiplayer is only available for a few hours per day.

This shouldn't even say it has multiplayer if it's only available for a few hours a day.. Yes, but only if you have friends. The game is sadly dead.. As Most said, This game is only good if you got friends. Long since dead, gone, and withered. This isn't something you can buy and expect to get a lot of enjoyment out of.

It is Soccer with hover tanks. That much is true. The satisfaction of the exploding tanks, the heavy weaponry and the crazy stuff you can do is also cool. But all in all, I would suggest Rocket League if anything. Same basic idea, Minus the futuristic blowy uppy weaponry. [Sadly.]

TL;DR: Buy only if you got 8+ friends who'll play it as well. otherwise, do not.
